Founded in 1960 and till recently known as the Shanghai Institute of Foreign Trade, SUIBE is a prominent academic institution of China renowned for its twelve schools, together constituting a multi-disciplinary and business-oriented university with its own distinctive characteristics.

The BRICS Students Meet, as customary, will bring together MBA students from member institutions in BRICS in a forum featuring a variety of activities such as presentations by student delegates, business games, a quiz contest and a debating competition. There will also be a cultural programme of music and dance staged by participants to project the vast diversity that characterises BRICS.
